

Nature Detective Bingo

art by Meg McLean

Look around outside, and be a nature detective. You can play by yourself or with your friends. When you find one of the items shown on your card, use a bean or button or pencil to mark the square. The winner is the first person to mark all the items in a row—across, down, or diagonally. Or you can try to cover the whole card.

Go to www.clickmagkids.com/trythis to print more bingo cards.

squirrel's nest	pine cone	rabbit	branch with buds	maple seed animal tracks	veins on a leaf	spider web	squirrel	rough tree bark moon	caterpillar	Free Space	snail	snowflake ants	fish	smooth-edged leaf	puddle	stones acorn	fruit tree	bird's nest	blades of grass	evergreen needles bird	bee	feather	lizard	butterfly dragonfly	earthworm	burr	branch with thorns	flowers smooth tree bark	mushroom	Free Space	shells	spider blades of grass	turtle	ladybug	clover	pointy-edged leaf rabbit	dirt	animal hole	fish	stars