

Time for Valentines!

Ladybug, Muddle, & Thud

Almost finished! We are sending a lot of valentines this year!

Why do we do this?

Valentines are given to those we really, really like!

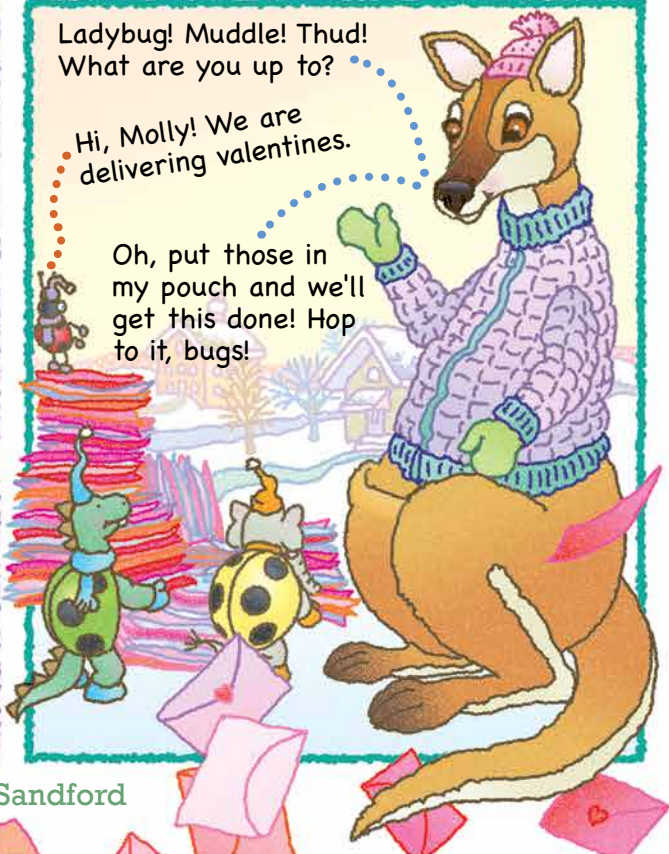

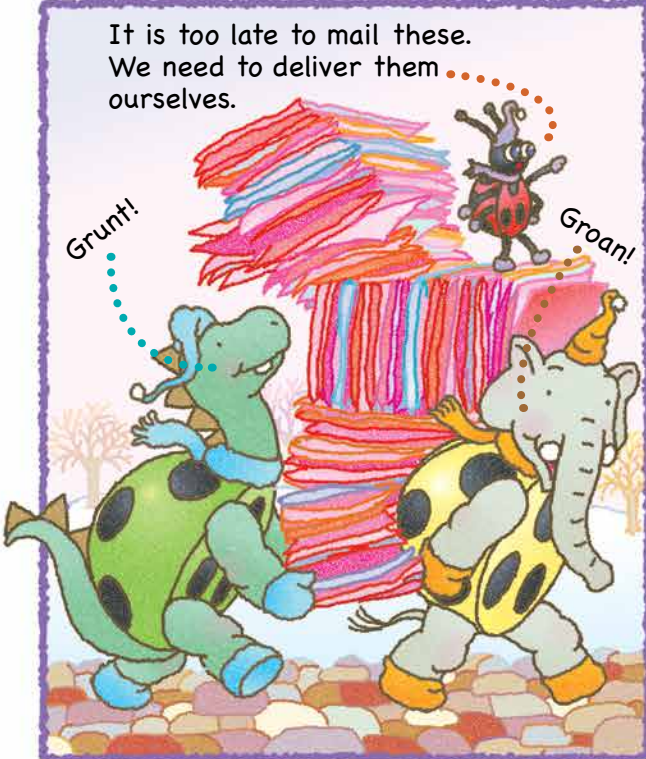

It is too late to mail these. We need to deliver them ourselves.

Ladybug! Muddle! Thud! What are you up to?

Hi, Molly! We are delivering valentines.

Oh, put those in my pouch and we'll get this done! Hop to it, bugs!

So Molly and the bugs delivered the cards to:

There goes the last one! That was fun!

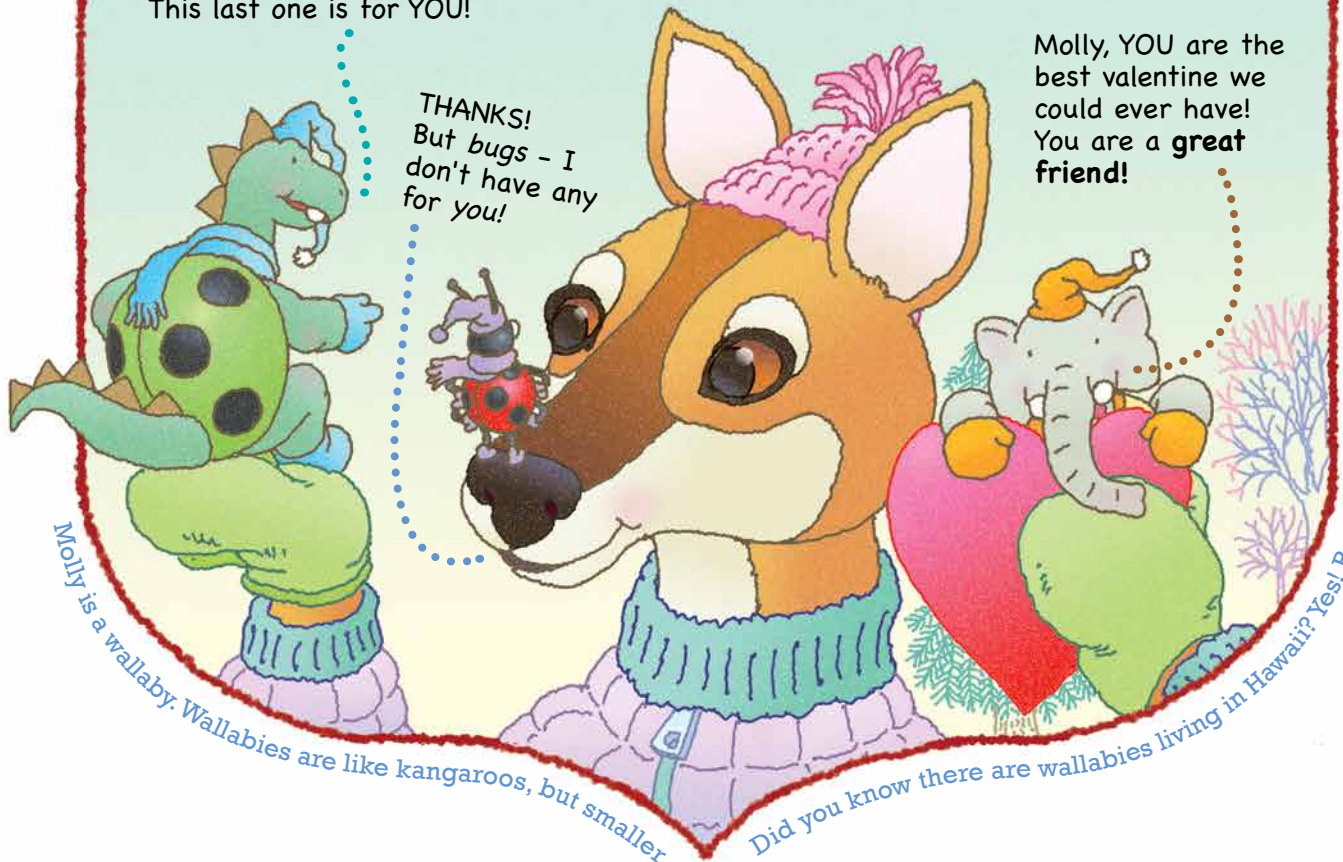

AND a lot of work, Molly. But hold on . . .

This last one is for YOU!

THANKS!
But bugs - I don't have any for you!

Molly, YOU are the best valentine we could ever have!
You are a great friend!

Molly is a wallaby. Wallabies are like kangaroos, but smaller.

Did you know there are wallabies living in Hawaii? Yes! Really!
