

WHAT ARE WE DOING FOR THANKSGIVING THIS YEAR?

SO WE'LL EAT WHAT THE PILGRIMS AND NATIVE AMERICANS ATE?

LET'S HAVE A REAL, AUTHENTIC THANKSGIVING.

YEAH. JUST LIKE THE VERY FIRST ONE!

COOL!

SOUNDS GOOD! TURKEY! CRANBERRIES!

PUMPKIN PIE!

H'M. NOT EXACTLY.

WHAT DO YOU MEAN?

THAT'S A TOTALLY TRADITIONAL THANKSGIVING MEAL.

IT IS NOW. BUT AT THE VERY FIRST THANKSGIVING IN 1621, THEY ATE WHAT THEY COULD GROW, OR GATHER, OR HUNT. I'VE BEEN READING ABOUT IT, AND IT WAS DIFFERENT.

HOW DIFFERENT?

WELL, THEY HAD CORN AND PEAS FROM THEIR GARDEN...

THAT'S EASY. QUICK— TO THE GARDEN! LET'S DO SOME HARVESTING.

UMMMM. SMALL PROBLEM...

WE PICKED THE PEAS AND CORN WEEKS AGO, AND ATE THEM, TOO. DON'T YOU REMEMBER?

DOOPS.

SO THE GARDEN IS ALREADY EATEN UP. WHAT ELSE IS THERE?

GUESS WE'LL HAVE TO DO THE HUNTER-GATHERER THING!

ALL RIGHT, EVERYBUGGY! BUNDLE UP FOR A TURKEY HUNT!

NO TURKEY!?

DO WE HAVE TURKEYS IN CRICKET COUNTRY?

I'M NOT SURE, BUT WE DON'T WANT TURKEY, ANYWAY.

H'M. I HOPE THEY ATE FRENCH FRIES.

D.K. FINE. SO WE WON'T FIGHT OVER THE DRUMSTICKS. BUT WHAT DID THEY EAT? I'M HUNGRY.

...THEY ATE DUCKS, GEESE, DEER, LOBSTERS, AND, UMMM...EELS.

EELS!

WE CAN'T EAT EELS! WE KNOW SOME EELS!!

DHHHH. WE'RE GOING TO STARVE INSTEAD OF FEAST.

WELLLL, ACCORDING TO THIS...

D.K., D.K.! SO THE ACTUAL MEAL HAS EVOLVED OVER TIME. LET'S STICK TO THE HEART OF IT: A CELEBRATION OF WHAT WE HAVE. WHAT DO WE HAVE?

TURKEY, CRANBERRIES, PUMPKIN PIE...

...AND A FEW OTHER GOODIES.

HUNTED AND GATHERED FROM THE CRICKET COUNTRY MARKET!

NOW THAT'S WORTH CELEBRATING! LET'S EAT!
