with EBENEZER & The COLONEL by KE Lewis

It's March 10, 1753, an exciting day to be in PHILADELPHIA!
Today, the Liberty Bell will be rung for the first time in what will soon become INDEPENDENCE HALL.
Maybe I'll get to meet my Hero: Benjamin Franklin!

ACTUALLY - the LIBERTY BELL was ordered from England in 1751 to honor the anniversary of WILLIAM PENN's 1701 PENNSYLVANIA CHARTER. It really did crack: "... by a stroke of the clapper without any other violence [sic] as it was hung to try the sound."
