

Pet Snowy Owl

by Sunny Tyto

Art by Aimee Hagerty Johnson

PAINTING YOUR OWN stone owl is a real hoot. But making more for your friends is even better. Sharing rocks!

What You'll Need:

smooth flat rocks

acrylic paint*

paintbrushes

googly eyes (optional)

glue (optional)

What to Do:

1. Paint the entire rock white for the owl's body.
2. Paint a gray heart on the top half of the rock for the owl's face.
3. Add a yellow or orange triangle to the point of the heart to make a beak.
4. Paint a black curve along the heart's top to make eyebrows.
5. Add a gray half circle to each side of the owl's body to make wings.
6. With a small paintbrush, add feathers to the owl's chest.
7. Glue googly eyes onto your owl's face, or paint on eyes.

* Wait for the paint to dry between each step.

Try out different designs and color combos on other rocks.

